teas for sale

eteaket are members of the 'ethical tea partnership': a non-profit membership organisation that works to improve tea sustainability, the lives of tea workers and the environment in which tea is produced. The amethyst cave are proud supporters of their cause and lovers of their morally conscious, high quality tea. We stock a selection of tea leaves in the studio to sample. Please feel free ask about the different types of tea available to order.

incense for sale

Our incense is a fairtrade sourced directly from the champa flowers of India. The people there hold this 100feet tall tree covered with thousands of golden fragrant blossoms in such high esteem that it is often plated near temples and ashrams where its colour form and exquisite smell can be enjoyed by people coming into these refined environments. Now it is no surprise that Nag Champa is one of most popular incense choices in the world.

Here a few of my favourites all for £3.00 a box
